STORRS, CT – Sept. 14, 2018 – Armed with only their lightning-fast wits, improvisational comedy superstars Colin Mochrie and Brad Sherwood will take the stage at UConn’s Jorgensen Center for the Performing Arts on Saturday evening, October 6th when their Scared Scriptless Tour comes to Storrs. Stars of the Emmy-nominated television series “Whose Line Is It Anyway”, the daring improv duo will incorporate suggestions and ideas from the audience to instantly create hilarious unscripted and unrehearsed scenes, skits, games and songs; and may even invite members of the audience to join them onstage for little impromptu interactive hijinks. The family friendly show, which takes place in Jorgensen’s cozy cabaret setting, begins at 8 pm. Cabaret fare and dessert will be available when doors open at 7:00 pm.

Learn more about the artists online at www.colinandbradshow.com.

Jorgensen presents 30 to 40 diverse performances each season, from nationally and internationally acclaimed artists and ensembles ranging from classical music to world music and dance, classical ballet and contemporary dance, comedy, family programming and contemporary entertainment.

Jorgensen Center for the Performing Arts is located at 2132 Hillside Road on the UConn campus in Storrs. Mochrie and Sherwood tickets are now available online at Jorgensen.uconn.edu. Tickets are $30 - $45 with some discounts available.
