STORRS, CT – Two of Broadway's biggest stars will reunite to perform some of Broadway's best-loved songs when Emmy and Grammy nominated Tony award winner Kelli O'Hara joins Tony, Emmy, and Golden Globe nominee Matthew Morrison and the New Hampshire Symphony Orchestra on stage in Jorgensen's candlelit cabaret on Saturday evening November 16 for an evening of classics from the Great White Way.

The two multi-talented performers garnered critical acclaim starring opposite one another in the Tony-winning 2005 musical The Light in the Piazza and again when they shared the stage in the 2008 revival of South Pacific. O'Hara is a Tony Award winner for playing Mrs. Anna in the 2015 revival of The King and I, a role she recently reprised in the West End. Morrison is well known for his role on Glee, as well as Broadway's Hairspray and Finding Neverland, and he is featured on the current season of American Horror Story. Cabaret fare, beverages, and deserts will be available from a cash bar when doors open at 7:00 pm. Show begins at 8:00 pm
