With a high-energy blend of swinging live music, silky smooth vocals, witty banter, and world class tap dancing, The Tap Pack will take the cabaret stage at UConn's Jorgensen Center for the Performing Arts on Saturday evening, February 15 for a concert paying homage to the legendary "kings of swing", The Rat Pack, and its famously talented members : Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, and Sammy Davis Jr. The dazzling two-hour performance not only features treasured old school favorites originally performed by Frank, Dean, and Sammy like "Lady Is a Tramp", "Come Fly with Me", "One For my Baby", and "Me And my Shadow"; the dapper 5-man ensemble will also put its own twist on contemporary hits from artists such as Sheeran, Bubl  and Beyonc . Get yourself ready for 2 hours of old school cool from the new kings of swing. Presented in Jorgensen's intimate candle-lit cabaret setting, the performance gets underway at 8 pm. Cabaret fare, desserts, and beverages will be available from a cash bar when doors open at 7 pm.

For more information about the artists please visit www.thetappack.com.

Voted Best College or University Performing Arts Center in the Hartford Courant's CTNow, Jorgensen presents 30 to 40 diverse performances each season, from nationally and internationally acclaimed artists and ensembles ranging from classical music to world music and dance, classical ballet and contemporary dance, comedy, family programming and contemporary entertainment.

Jorgensen Center for the Performing Arts is located at 2132 Hillside Road on the UConn
