INTERVIEW OPPORTUNITIES AVAILABLE

August 27, 2018 – (Storrs, CT) Praised by Downbeat magazine as “one of the most delightfully energetic bands on New York’s ‘hot music’ scene”, the eight-member New York-based jazz ensemble The Hot Sardines will bring their wailing horn arrangements, rollicking piano runs, and lead singer Elizabeth Bourgerol’s expressive, sensuous vocal stylings to the stage at UConn’s Jorgensen Center for the Performing Arts on Saturday, September 22 to take their audience on a joyous, nostalgic ride on the jazz wayback machine. Performing a selection of vintage pop, blues, and jazz party tunes popular during the early part of the twentieth century, the band perfectly captures the energy and mood of a bygone musical era - guaranteed to get music lovers of all ages up off their seats. Doors open at 7:30 pm, and show begins at 8:00 pm.

Visit the artists online at www.thehotsardines.com..
