STORRS, CT – Hailed by fans and critics as one of the most exciting bands to come out of Ireland in recent memory, the grassroots crossover sensation We Banjo 3 brings their fretboard wizardry and exhilarating vocal harmonies to the stage at UConn's Jorgensen Center for the Performing Arts on Thursday, October 17 for a night of rip-roaring, get-on-your-feet 'Celtgrass'-- the group's unique blend of Celtic and American bluegrass liberally spiced with dashes of folk-pop and country. Comprising two sets of brothers; Enda Scahill (banjo, vocals) & Fergal Scahill (fiddle, vocals), and Martin Howley (banjo, vocals) & David Howley, (mandolin, lead vocals), the high-energy quartet has developed a loyal following in the U.S., Ireland and other parts of the world, winning over audiences at major music and Irish festivals and prestigious venues with their joyous, engaging live show. The Storrs concert is part of the band's Roots to Rise Tour, in support of the release of their new Roots to Rise Live album, which debuted at the #1 position on Billboard's Bluegrass Albums Chart in August 2019.

Show begins at 7:30 pm. Doors open at 7:00 pm.

We Banjo 3 will continue to partner with Mental Health America on their Roots to Rise Tour to raise funds and awareness for the organization. The band donates $2.00 from the sale of every T-shirt to MHA.
